Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Marjorie (Marjy) Gregg, who is retiring from the state of South Dakota after 20 years of service; and,

Whereas, Marjy, as a senior secretary within the South Dakota Department of Agriculture, has worked tirelessly to preserve, protect, and promote the use of our state's natural resources; and,

Whereas, Marjy's specialty and greatest value to the people of South Dakota has been to provide support to program staff, state conservation commission, department administrative staff, and conservation districts regarding proper state procedures, processing reimbursements requests, providing assistance to conservation districts and the conservation commission regarding records and where to seek assistance that they require, and serving as the conservation commission secretary; and,

Whereas, During Marjy's tenure with the Department, she has held secretary positions within the Agricultural Development and Resource Conservation and Forestry divisions; and,

Whereas, Marjy has developed and maintained working relationships within state government departments, conservation commission, and federal, state, and local agencies to further natural resource conservation within South Dakota; and,

Whereas, On May 8, 2017, Marjy is retiring to spend more time with her family; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 8, 2017, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard
